Língua Gestual Portuguesa / Portuguese Sign Language

The Portuguese Sign Language degree aims to develop and consolidate studies around this language in order for it to be understood as a vehicle for full and autonomous communication by the deaf community. The intention of this programme, which combines a solid theoretical grounding with practice of the language, is to spark an interest and desire in the students to deepen their reflexive knowledge concerning Portuguese Sign Language (LGP) in order to become competent professionals, capable of advanced critical thinking.

Goals

Train professionals to teach or interpret Portuguese Sign Language (LGP) as a 1st or 2nd language and to spread the values and culture of the deaf community, contributing towards ensuring equal opportunities, social integration and access to education for deaf people, and towards ensuring that communication takes place between the deaf and the hearing.

Careers and Professional Opportunities

Portuguese Sign Language (LGP) trainers / teachers;

Portuguese Sign Language (LGP) interpreters.
