

Els Callens VIVES University College, Belgium.

Els Callens is a Senior Lecturer in Teacher Training Education at the VIVES campus Tielt, where she has been employed for 22 years. During this time she has mainly taught in the areas of pedagogy and didactics, specific orthodidactical topics, inclusive education and religion.

As well as this she has been the international coordinator for the area of education in VIVES campuses in Brugge, Torhout and Tielt since 2014. Before this she had been the international coordinator in campus Tielt since 2004.

Els has her Master's Degree in Educational Sciences during her studies she specialized in orthopedagogical and orthodidactical matters. The focus of her work is more and more inclusion. Els also has her Master's Degree in Religion.

She is currently participating in international projects on inclusion in Europe and Africa.